General terms of use

Here you will find the more general terms and conditions (the “Terms”) that apply to your use of our products and services, including how to communicate with us, how to manage your accounts, our anti-money laundering and anti-fraud policies, and our intellectual property rights.

1. Introduction

- 1.1. The terms “we”, “us”, and “our” mean or relate to Deriv Investments (Europe) Limited (DIEL). Deriv.com Limited is the holding company for DIEL with the registration number 71479 and the registered address of 2nd Floor, 1 Cornet Street, St Peter Port, Guernsey, GY1 1BZ.
- 1.2. We reserve the exclusive right to determine the scope, availability, and nature of the services and products we offer to you.
- 1.3. We may choose to introduce, modify, or discontinue services and products for reasons related to regulatory compliance, operational efficiency, or strategic considerations. In any such circumstances, we will make reasonable efforts to notify you and provide you with guidance on account management.
- 1.4. The current version of this agreement remains valid until a new version is posted on the Deriv website. We reserve the right to amend our Terms, as permitted by law, without notice. The amended Terms shall become valid once they are posted on the Deriv website. If we make any material changes to the Terms and Conditions, we will inform you, and you will need to reconfirm acceptance before the changes apply to your account.
- 1.5. If any material change to the Terms gives rise to termination by you, no charges shall be incurred. However, we reserve the right to deduct all outstanding amounts due to us before transferring your balances in any Deriv account and postpone such transfer until any and all contracts between you and us are closed.
- 1.6. These Terms are available in English. You can use the official language of your member state to communicate with us if you prefer.

2. Product offering

- 2.1. We do not offer our services in some countries (“Restricted Countries”), including Alderney, Belarus, Canada, the Cayman Islands, Guernsey, Hong Kong, Israel, Jersey, Jordan, Malaysia, Malta, Rwanda, Paraguay, Singapore, the United Arab Emirates, the United States of America, or any country that has been identified by the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) as subject to a call for action.
- 2.2. As you are a resident of the European Union, your account will be registered with Deriv Investments (Europe) Limited, which offers the following:
 - 2.2.1. Multipliers based on forex, derived indices, and cryptocurrencies via Deriv Trader
 - 2.2.2. Contracts for difference (CFDs) based on forex, commodities, cryptocurrencies, stocks, stock indices, and derived indices via Deriv MT5

3. Transactions

- 3.1. We will act as principal and not as your agent when entering into transactions. This means you are entering into contracts directly with us to buy and sell financial instruments. We are, therefore, not entering into a contract with any other person on your behalf.

4. Governing laws and jurisdiction

- 4.1. It is your responsibility as you access Deriv to make sure that you understand and fully follow the relevant laws and regulations of your own country. We do not support any offerings or make any solicitations that are illegal in your country, and you cannot use your Deriv account for such prohibited offerings. In some countries, we may not be permitted to offer our products and services to you unless you have taken proactive steps to solicit information about them and requested to be provided with our products and services. Access to Deriv and the offering of certain trades via Deriv may also be restricted in some jurisdictions. It is your responsibility to know about the restrictions that apply in your country of residence and to observe them as in continuing to access our products and services, you represent to us that you are doing so legally and that, where relevant, you have solicited information about our products and services and requested to be provided with them.
- 4.2. Your account will be governed by the laws of Malta, where Deriv Investments (Europe) Ltd is incorporated. You agree to submit to the applicable jurisdiction's courts and bring any claim you may have before them. These courts will have sole authority to settle any disputes that may arise between you and us.
- 4.3. If a court or regulatory body of competent jurisdiction declares any provision of the Terms to be invalid or unenforceable, the rest of the Terms shall remain in full force and effect.
